June 2013

May Meeting

I'm sure we all enjoyed the images from Peter and Sandy Jones' trip to China. Thanks to you both for your efforts and the very nice show.

June Meeting

We have had an annual photo contest meeting for three or four years now. I'll reiterate the rules here.

The committee has decided to allow two entries per photographer. Prints must be a minimum of 8 by 10 or equivalent 80 square inches. That is, a panoramic 7 by 12 would also be eligible. Our two year time limit applies as to date photo was shot.

Prints may be simply mounted on rigid mounting board, matted, canvas on a stretcher or framed. There is no maximum size limit.

Prints must not have the photographer's name visible on the front. If it is there, cover it with a post it note or the like. Put your name on the back of the print.

Prints should be brought to the meeting covered so nobody but the print collector will know which image belongs to whom. A person will accept your print or prints and assign a number to it/them. Prints will be put on display around the meeting room and all members present will receive a score card on which they will score each print by number on a basis of 1 to 10 in several characteristics. There is no need to submit a digital image for the contest.

While scores are tallied there will be a presentation of part 3 of the three part video on lighting presented by Joel Sartore. We saw the first two parts at the March meeting.

Prizes will be awarded, $50 for first place, $30 for second and $20 for third. Of course the winners' images will appear in the following month's newsletter.

July Meeting

The special topic for the July forum will be Candid/Portraits. See our web site, for further rules.

Our critic will be Rob Travis. See his web site www.robtravis.com for samples of his work. Rob is a member of the Land of Waterfalls camera club in Brevard. I understated his accomplishments last month. He took first place in the Times News contest and also had several other images published by them. Rob has had images published in WNC magazine, Blue Ridge Country Views, and the Laurel of Asheville.

Hollywild Field Trip

Mike Raney sent out an Email with details but I will summarize here. The trip is on Wednesday June 19. We will meet at 8 AM in the parking lot of Ingles at Spartanburg Rd. and Highland Lake Rd. to car pool.

Senior group rate is $6.80. Younger folks will have to pay $8.00. If you would rather just drive yourself, meet us in the Hollywild parking lot at 9:00. To get the group rate we must enter as a group. Hollywild has specified that they would like one check for our admission fee, so bring cash for our designated collector (probably Mike Raney), who will write a check to Hollywild. The park has concession stands and a picnic area.

Bring sunscreen and a hat. Mike says it can get hot in South Carolina.

Photos

Photos this month are by Kim Maxwell. I've put them all together after the text because of being away last week and not getting the newsletter started. Thanks, Kim for getting these together on short notice.
