

Potential Photo Opportunities in October 2021

1. Draconid meteor shower peak, Oct 8–9 .
<https://www.timeanddate.com/astronomy/meteor-shower/draconid.html>
2. Great Smoky Mountains – Fog lifting off the mountains and fall colors
3. Linn Cover Viaduct – October 13 is average peak for colors
4. Blue Ridge Parkway hardwood foliage colors are peaking
5. Farm City Day, Hendersonville (October 2, Jackson Park) : Hendersonville’s Farm City Day is one of the best things to do in Hendersonville. It mixes urban and rural displays, modern and antique farm equipment, and more throughout the day.

Farm City Day brings animals, games, crafts to Jackson Park Saturday

Kids and their families will flock to Jackson Park Saturday, Oct. 2 for Farm City Day's lineup of hands-on activities, including a farm animal petting zoo, old-timey demonstrations, games, crafts and a fishing pond.

6. Cashiers Valley Leaf Festival, Cashiers (October 8-10): There are some great hikes near Cashiers, including the Panthertown Valley Trail that leads to Schoolhouse Falls.
7. Carolina Balloonfest, Statesville (October 15-17)
8. Cataloochee Valley elk viewing in the morning fog OR evening gathering of the elk.
9. Yellow Creek Falls in Graham County. 9041 Tapoco Road, Robbinsville, NC 28771
10. Joyce Kilmer Memorial Forest. 5410 Joyce Kilmer Road, Robbinsville, NC 28771