

Potential Photo Opportunities in November 2021

1. Jump Off Rock, Laurel Park, NC -

<https://www.visithendersonvillenc.org/businesses/jump-off-rock>

2. Craggy Gardens, Asheville, NC

<https://www.blueridgeparkway.org/poi/craggy-gardens/>

3. Crab Tree Falls, Blue Ridge Parkway

<https://www.blueridgeparkway.org/poi/crabtree-falls/>

4. Pretty Place

<https://www.campgreenville.org/pretty-place/>

Pretty Place Chapel is available to the public for visitors at any time that there is not a private event scheduled. You can always check our current schedule and availability on the website here: <https://www.campgreenville.org/visitation-schedule>. Your group is welcome to take pictures when the chapel is open for public viewing. Reservations are not needed during public viewing times.

5. Caesar Head State Park

<https://southcarolinaparks.com/caesars-head>

6. Asheville Arboretum

<https://www.ncarboretum.org/>

7. The Chapel at the Cove

<https://thecove.org/take-a-tour/>

(Note: the Visitors Center is at 1 Porters Cove Road, Asheville, NC. Simply go to the gate and ask to go to the visitor's center. Visitors are welcome to bring cameras and take pictures both inside and outside the buildings.)

8. Jones Gap State Park

<https://southcarolinaparks.com/jones-gap>

9. Devils Fork State Park South Carolina

<https://southcarolinaparks.com/devils-fork>